

BIOLOGICAL APPROACH KEY TERMS QUIZ

You can prepare for IB Psychology by asking three simple questions:

1. What is...?
2. How does...?
3. ...but...?

The following quiz is designed to test your ability to answer the first question.

Answer the following questions using 1-2 sentence definitions. Check your answers HERE.

What is the biological approach to understanding human behavior?
What is one technique used to study the brain?
What is localization (of brain function)?
What is neuroplasticity?
What is a neurotransmitters?
What is neurotransmission?
What is a hormone?
What is a pheromone?
What is a gene?
What is one research method that uses genetic similarities?

What is a twin or kinship study?
What is an evolutionary explanation of behavior?
HL: What is an animal model?
What is one common research method used in studies in the biological approach? (State and define).
What is a common ethical consideration relevant to studies in the biological approach? (State and define).

Biological Approach “Additional Terms”

What is a neural network?
What is neural pruning?
What is a synapse
What is an excitatory neurotransmitter?
What is an inhibitory neurotransmitter?
What is an agonist?
What is an antagonist?
What is a neuron?	